

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

1. What is QuickCash?

QuickCash allows you to withdraw cash from your available credit card/credit card-i limit and credit the funds into your personal Savings/Current account. You may choose to repay the principal amount together with the interest/management fee in fixed monthly instalments over a period of 12, 24 or 36 months.

2. What is the minimum amount for a QuickCash application?

The minimum amount per application is RM1,000.

3. What is the maximum amount for a QuickCash application?

You may draw up to 90% of your existing credit limit.

Please take note that if you are a New-to-Bank cardholder, you may draw up to 50% or 70% of your existing credit limit based on your credit card/credit card-i type:

Credit Card/Credit Card-i Type	Capped Limit
Classic and Gold	Up to 50% of credit limit
Platinum, Signature, Infinite and World	Up to 70% of credit limit

Note: New-to-Bank Cardholders are defined as Cardholders holding their first AmBank/AmBank Islamic Principal Credit Card/Credit Card-i for not more than six (6) months from the card approval date at the time of the QuickCash application.

4. May I cancel or opt for early settlement for my QuickCash?

Yes, but do take note that there will be an early settlement fee of RM100 (not applicable to TRUE by AmBank Visa Card, AmBank BonusLink Visa Card and AmBank M-Card).
